Summer 1 - Week 2

Head of School Message

Week two we have continued to work hard on our wider offer for the children of Tregolls. So far this week our Year 4 children have been to the Hall For Cornwall to watch a wonderful show 'Boy at the Back of the Class' which is also the story they are reading.

Cornwall Cricket kindly came into school and offered a workshop for all classes to have a go. Many of the children will continue with these lessons in their PE lessons and there is a Year 3&4 cricket club every Wednesday that still has space! Next term will be the chance for our Year 5 and 6 children who will also go off to represent us in a tournament.

Next week some of our Year 5 and Reception class are off to the Maritime museum to help enhance their wider curriculum topics.

Please look out for letters relating to National Exams if you are in Year 1, 4 and 6. These will be taking place over the coming month. A reminder that it is a bank holiday this weekend and we will be closed on Monday!

Best wishes, Mr Rees

Learning of the Week

We had a marvellous day of developing our Cricket Skills. Hannah from Cornwall Cricket joined us for a number of coaching sessions where we all worked on our skills of batting, fielding and bowling as well as attributes such as resilience, confidence and empathy. We were even blessed with sunshine at one point!
